On receiving the petitions of the men Manager Morton telegraphed Supt. Zoublin, of the Western Union Telegraph company, who is also general manager of the Bell Telephone company, and who is new in Washington. Mr. Zeublin in reply directed Mr. Morton to inform the men that he could not give a decision at once in reference to their petitions, but that he would meet their representatives upon his return to the city on Saturday, when he thought a satisfactory adjustment of the difficulties could be arrived adjustment of the difficulties could be arrived

FOSTER AND HOADLY.

The Man Who Is Governor and the Man Who Would Like to Be Have a Very Interesting Correspondence,

The interview with Gov. Foster, published in THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN a few days ago, has stirred up a terrible row among the brethern in Ohio. In the interview Gov. Foster is represented as having said that Judge Hoadly admitted that his nomination cost him $50,000, and that John McLean cost him $50,000, and that John McLean cost him half of that amount. To this statement Judge Hoadly took violent exceptions, and demanded to know of the governor whether he had been correctly reported, and if so that he be confronted by the governor's informant. The reply came back promptly and to the point. After admitting the substantial accuracy of the remark attributed to him he added: "A gentleman who says he had a full talk upon the subject with you told me what you said to him—that your nomination cost you $50,000, and that McLean compelled you to pay one-half of this sum during the convention. I cannot give his name without his consent. Now that the subject is up, permit me to add that it is notorious that the delegation from Cincinnati to the democratic convention openly sold their votes to candidates, and the price paid therefor seems to be well understood. Would it not be well for you to state publicly what it cost you to get your nomination, and whether it is true that McLean made you pay more than you would have paid had he kept out of the fight, and if so, how much, so that this point relative to the cost of your nomination, and this point relative to the cost of your nomination, so that this point relative to the cost of your nominical that the point relative to the cost of your nominical to the deep out of the fight, and if so, how much, so that this point relative to the cost of your nominical to the deep out of the fight, and if so, how much, so that Foster is represented as having said that Judge out of the fight, and if so, how much, so that this point relative to the cost of your nomi-nation may be definitely understood? The 'Old Democracy,' I am quite sure, would like to be informed. I suggest this because your vigorous epithets seem to apply to the amount stated and not to the fact that you did not pay anything," This does not appear to have been the answer Judge Hoadly looked for, or the one he wanted, for he comes back with the declaration that the statement is false and reiterates his cagerness to confront the in-formant. At the present writing Gov. Fos-ter has decidedly the advantage.

The rain made the track at Ivy City very heavy yesterday, and for a short time there was no prospect of a race. There was only case race on the programme, that of mile heats, best two in three, which was won by Louie B. The summary was as follows: Ernest Burgdorf's b. m. Louie B, 1, 1, 1; P. F. Cusick's s. g. RIT A BOY WITH A BRICK.

A Street Laborer Assaults a Party of Mischievous Urchins and Injures One of Them Seriously, if Not Fatally.

Charles Johnson, a little six-year-old son of Mr. C. H. Johnson, a tinner, residing at No. 112 F street no.thwest, was struck on the head last night by a brick thrown by a colored laborer named Samuel Jackson. Jackson was breaking stone for the improvement of streets at the corner of Second and G streets northwest about 7 o'clock. Some little boys, among whom was little Johnson, were playing near by, and it seems took some of the stones Jackson was breaking, when the latter became exasperated, and picking up a half brick threw it at the boys. It struck the child on the right temple inflicting an ugly and serious wound. Eddie Johnson, a brother of the wounded boy, was coming up the street when Jackson threw the brick, and he and the other boys held him until an officer arrived, when he was taken to the station and locked up.
Dr. Minnian was called to attend the wounded boy and pronounced him to be in a critical condition. Jackson is about 45 years of age and is of robust build. He says he did not intend to strike the boys, but simply to frighten them. at the corner of Second and G streets north-
